WHAT IS A SHORT & LEVERAGED ETP?

Short and Leveraged ETPs enable you to take Long (rising markets), or Short (falling markets) exposure to an index like the FTSE 100 Index, or a commodity like gold or oil. However, instead of moving in line with your chosen Underlying Asset, a Short and Leveraged ETP will leverage your exposure by 2, 3 or 5 times, and multiply any gain or loss by that amount. They have a fixed investment term of 10 years and are listed on the LSE by a regulated financial services provider such as Societe Generale.

A Short & Leveraged ETP is a form of debt security, which is issued by SG Issuer via an Issuing Programme which is approved by the UK Listing Authority. SG Issuer is a 100% subsidiary of Societe Generale.

WHAT COSTS ARE INVOLVED?

Investors holding Short & Leveraged ETPs for less than a day will simply pay a dealing commission to their broker, and a small spread on the Bid (Sell) & Ask (Buy) prices. Investors holding their position overnight will incur the Annualised Cost and Gap Premium, which are calculated daily and applied to the value of the product. Gap Premium is a hedging cost that protects the product from extreme market movements overnight. Without Gap Premium, the Short and Leveraged ETP could lose more than 100% of its value. However, because of the Gap Premium, the worst that can happen is that the product is worth nothing.

Risk warning. The value of the product can go down and up. Gains and losses will be greater than investing directly in the Underlying Asset. Performance is compounded daily. Holding for more than a day may generate a return different to that of the Underlying Asset, multiplied by the leveraged factor. As such, these products should be monitored daily. Please read supporting documents prior to investing.
